PROGRAM FOR EXCELLENCE CAMPAIGN REACHES TARGET

D. G. Willmot

Thanks to You

It is the intention of the Board of Governors in the very near future, to individually thank each one of you for your contribution which helped to make the Program for Excellence a success. However, Tiger wishes to thank you one and all for your contribution and for your faith in Ridley. With supporters like you, Ridley College cannot help but continue to be in the forefront of Canadian education.

In the Fall of 1971 our $5,000,000 Program for Excellence campaign got under way at the Association Week End. Just over three years later, in early December of 1974, we reached our target. The final figure stands at $5,020,241. $3,070,041 has been raised in cash contributions or pledges and $1,950,200 in bequests.

This is a tremendous accomplishment. It is by far the largest sum ever raised by an independent school in Canada.

S. M. Irwin

A debt of gratitude is owed to Mr. D. G. Willmot, general chairman of the campaign and his hard working deputy Mr. S. M. Irwin and to the hundreds of volunteer workers at all levels of the campaign who worked long and hard to make their quotas which have put the campaign over the top.

Pledges will still be coming in through 1976 and it will be some years before Ridley receives all the bequests that have been made.

The construction phase of the campaign was completed in October of 1973 when the addition to the Matthews Library, the McLaughlin classroom building, the new Biology laboratory and the renovation of School House were completed.

The funds that will continue to flow in from outstanding pledges and the bequests will be added to the capital of the Ridley College Foundation, and the Ridley College Scholarship Fund, Inc. The interest earned on these funds will go toward fulfilling the other objectives of the campaign:

$1,500,000 for an Educational Development Fund to attract and retain skilful men who will maintain high standards of excellence in teaching.

$1,000,000 to be added to the Scholarship and Bursary Fund to increase the financial assistance for qualified students who seek the opportunity to attend Ridley.

$1,000,000 for a Building Maintenance Endowment Fund that will help to assure proper maintenance of the physical plant at a high standard.

Tiger's Quarter-Century

In publishing and in marriage, a 25th anniversary is an occasion of great importance. Something silver suggests an operation of integrity and of mutual benefit. The contents of each issue of TIGER are proof of its integrity as a purveyor of news of Ridley. The care with which it is read indicates its benefit to those at the School and to its ever-increasing circulation among others who are interested in the affairs of Ridley.

Volume 1, Number 1, of TIGER appeared in October 1950, as a pocket-sized pamphlet of eight, twelve or sixteen pages, a publication of the Ridley College Old Boys' Association. It was the brain-child of the then President of the R.C.O.B.A., the late G. R. Marks, and the First Vice-President, H. E. Foster. They were supported by the late Dr. H. C. Griffith, Honorary-President, the late J. E. Kennedy, Past-President, the late W. B. C. Burgoyne, 2nd Vice-President, H. S. Gooderham, Honorary Secretary-Treasurer, T. Cronyn, Secretary-Treasurer, and a committee of seventeen Old Boys. It was established "to maintain a closer and more continuing contact between the Old Boys themselves and between Old Boys and the School."

The original production represented a somewhat daring financial venture on the part of the O.B.A. The Association was largely self-supporting. Its day-to-day operations were dependent on annual dues received from its members and on a reserve account of Life Membership fees. Issue Number 6 of Volume 1 (July 1951) carried a plaintive question from the editor — Can TIGER continue? It has been entirely financed by reserve funds.

It could, and it did.

Tiger's greatest metamorphosis occurred with Volume XVII, Number 2 (February 1967), when its format became that of to-day and its circulation increased vastly to include parents of boys, past and present, and friends of Ridley, H. T. C. Taylor was the President of the O.B.A. who, with the Secretary-Treasurer, S. G. Heaman, created the present pleasing publication — large pages, many pictures and room for far-reaching Old Boys' notes and news.

The financial problems of publication became part of the larger scene with the dissolution of the Old Boys' Association which was replaced by the Ridley College Association. The capital account of the O.B.A. was given to the School, and TIGER became a public relations feature of Ridley life. That it has successfully accepted its greater responsibilities is a self-evident proposition.

TIGER gives its readers all the news that's fit to print concerning the contemporary scene at Ridley. From reading its first couple of issues, we remember that the scene in 1950 included the following items of news:

There were 224 boys in the Upper School and 109 in the Lower, and the teaching-staff consisted of thirty men . . . The Great Hall, kitchens, laboratories and the R. R. Schmon Memorial Hospital were in use for the first time . . . School House was internally restructured and Dean's House and the Lower School were re-decorated . . . The Prime Minister of Canada and Mrs. Louis St. Laurent took lunch in the Upper School, flanked by a choice selection of local dignitaries at the High Table . . . The first artificial-ice appeared in the Rink . . . For the first time, Upper School masters kept to their own class-rooms and boys moved from room to room between classes . . . The Debating Team won the Fulford Trophy . . . There were 55 Old Boys known to be on active service in the forces of Canada, Great Britain and the U.S.A. . . . Upwards of 240 Old Boys were in attendance at some 73 universities . . . And so it went.

And so it goes to-day. Onward and upward is the continuing story of Ridley, and of THE RIDLEY TIGER. May TIGER'S Golden Anniversary issue (September 1999) give to its readers the pleasure, knowledge and inspiration of the issues of to-day.

Football '75

The First team was led this year by Captain Somerville and Vice-Captain Gicas. After a very intensive early season training session we played the 1973 zone champions, Beamsville H.S. in the 1974 United Way Bowl Game. After a mistake ridden but thrilling tussle Ridley emerged with a 30-28 win. This was somewhat of a pyrrhic victory as we lost a very promising full-back in Thetford who broke his leg in the game.

After an easy win over Thorold H.S. the team lost its first two school games to U.C.C. and S.A.C., 9-6 and 16-8 respectively.

Kingstone struggles for yards while Burke anticipates a block.

The highpoint of the season was on the Association Weekend when the team played its best football and most inspired game to win 21-20 against T.C.S. in the final seconds. T.C.S. went on to become co-champions with U.C.C.

The team won its two remaining games against Hillfield and Appleby to conclude the season with a five and two record.

The Second team co-captained by Paterson and Marshall enjoyed a winning season for the first time in some years. The overall record of four wins and two defeats indicates the player potential of the team. Many of these members will be trying out for the First team next year. The team defeated Appleby twice,

St. Andrews once and split games with U.C.C., while losing to T.C.S.

The traditional league in which the Under 16's have played for so many exciting seasons pretty much came to an end this year. All of the ISSA schools, with the exception of T.C.S. and Ridley have dropped out. The problem appears to be a declining interest in football at the junior level.

In spite of this, the boys regarded their season as a busy and satisfying one. They played good games against Nichols and three local high schools. However, the highlights of the season were the two games against T.C.S. both of which Ridley won. The old rivalry is still very much alive and these games were a fitting conclusion to the season.

Association Week End

Ridley once again played host to its Old Boys over the 43rd Association Week End, 19 and 20 October. Many Parents attended the functions over the Week End as well.

Reunions were held by the Class of 1934 (40th), Wm. H. Robinson, secretary; the Class of 1949 (25th), George M. Hendrie, secretary; and a joint reunion by the Classes of 1959 and 1960, Bob Seagram and Bob Kinnear, joint secretaries and John Craig, secretary. All the reunion secretaries worked hard at rounding up their Classmates and there were excellent turnouts of all classes. From the comments heard in passing, those who did not attend from these classes missed great get togethers and the opportunity to renew old friendships.

Old Boys started arriving on Friday afternoon and although overall numbers were down from last year the enthusiasm of those we saw made up for lesser numbers. There was a terrific turnout of the Class of 1974 and we hope they will keep it up. Practically all of this Class who were anywhere near St. Catharines were here and this included our first group of girls under our new policy of Day Girls in Grade 12 and 13.

The Saturday morning turnout at the panel discussion "Ridley 74" was not large. Too many of you apparently do not like early rising on Saturday although 10:30 is not the crack of dawn. This lively discussion between Students, Staff and Association members is most interesting and we hope to see more of you show up next year.

Saturday lunch revived many for the game against T.C.S. in the afternoon. The game turned out to be a real thriller with Ridley hanging on in the closing minutes to win.

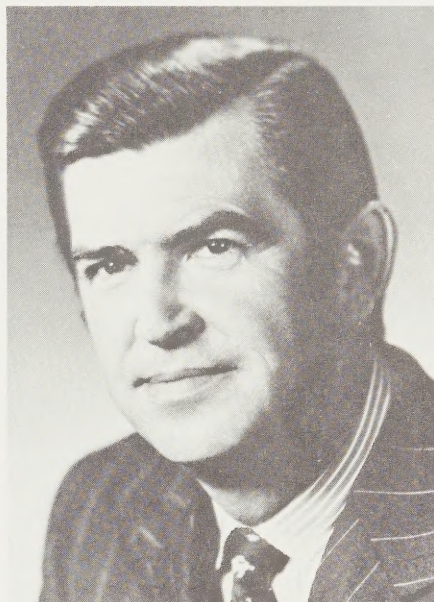

Cocktails, dinner in the Great Hall ably chaired by our new president, Donald W. Naylor, and the after dinner party at the St. Catharines Club all provided opportunities to seek out old friends, have a talk with that old staff member you wanted to see and reminisce.

On Sunday the School was privileged to have The Most Rev'd. E. W. Scott, Primate of Canada, as the guest speaker in the Memorial Chapel. A Chapel full to overflowing, mainly Old Boys and Parents taking over from the Lower School and some of the Upper School students, were treated to a fine sermon by the Archbishop.

The traditional party at the home of John and Cose Guest after the Chapel service wound up the Week End and during the afternoon our guests left to return to their homes.

Thank you for coming. We hope you enjoyed the Week End. Come again next year. We look forward to seeing you.

John Merritt Gould

John's death on 4 January, in hospital at Toronto, was a great loss to all of us at, and connected with, Ridley. Much of his life had been involved in the school, as boy, parent and member of the Board of Governors.

He was born in 1924. He entered the Lower School in 1933 and continued in the Upper School until he graduated in 1943. He was an active participator in school affairs. In 1942-43 he was a Duty Boy, a member of the First Football and Swimming teams, Sergeant-Major of the Cadet Corps and a member of the Dramatic Society.

Immediately after leaving Ridley John enlisted in the R.C.A.F. He became a Pilot Officer on active service and continued as such with the R.C.N.V.R.

Following war service he entered the University of Western Ontario where he gained a Bachelor of Arts Degree.

John's name was synonymous throughout Canada with the advertising business. He began his business career with Gould-Leslie Ltd., where he rose in a few years to the office of President. By 1965 he was also President of Gould Outdoor Advertising Ltd. Three years later he moved to Toronto and formed Outdoor Advertising Sales Ltd. 1971 saw him appointed President of Claude Neon Advertising Ltd. and E. L. Ruddy Co. Ltd. In two years he merged these companies and two others into Claude Neon Industries Ltd.

He had been a member of the Board of Governors of Ridley since 1966. In recent years he was a Vice-President of the Board, a trustee of the Ridley College Foundation and the very able chairman of the Financial Support Committee.

John was the son of Mrs. H. V. (Dorothy) Gould of St. Catharines. He leaves his widow, Marcia (Weldon), his sons, Harold (69), Jay (73), Tim (74), and his daughter, Elizabeth.

Board of Governors Report

The annual meeting of the Board was held at the School on November 20, 1974. At that time a by-law was enacted amending the general by-laws of the School to reduce the number of governors from the previously constituted forty-two members. A reduction has now been facilitated by the resignations of Mr. James E. McConnell, Mr. James B. Cronyn, Mr. Hugh A. Rapsey, Mr. Grant C. Brown and Dr. John R. Grace.

Vacancies have also been created by the untimely death of John Gould and the resignation of Denis Love. Both were tireless workers for Ridley on the Board and with the Program for Excellence campaign.

Dr. Grace has been our man in Montreal. Because of professional commitments and the simple problem of distance, active attendance at meetings became difficult. The four other gentlemen have been long and faithful members of the Ridley Board and have contributed immeasurably to the success of the School. Jim McConnell was Chairman of the Board for four years during a most demanding time and performed his duties in what can only be described as an incomparable fashion. Hugh Rapsey has been our financial confidante and investment counsel and has expended a prodigious amount of time and effort in the affairs of the School, the Board and the Executive Committee. Jim Cronyn and "Bud" Brown have been faithful members of the Board, active in the Program for Excellence and Financial Support.

A new member of the Advisory Council is Mr. Terry P. Scandrett. Bob Stevens continues to run a tight ship and was unanimously re-elected Chairman and President.

The matter of finances bears heavily on the affairs of Ridley. Peter MacLachlan continues to strive for a positive cash flow. He was able to report to the annual meeting that the operating deficit was reduced to $58,000 from $190,000 the previous year. In fiscal 74-75 we are anticipating a positive cash flow, but this will depend upon the extent of major repairs which may or may not have to be made to the fabric of the School during the year. A great deal of effort has been exerted by Ian Wilson, the School Administrator, at arriving at this more optimistic stance.

John Drope and the Property Committee have once again raised the warning flag concerning the ongoing maintenance of the School. Very simply, the normal maintenance budget of $40,000 will have to be increased substantially in order to keep pace with the need to increase the amount of maintenance and to keep up with inflation. In addition, his committee has started to look seriously at the need for additional facilities in the Lower School. Also on his list, for consideration in the near future, are the refurbishing of Gooderham House and a new Manual Arts and Storage Building to take the place of the old Cricket House which is long overdue for replacement.

In partial answer to the economic problems we have to face at the School, the Long Range Planning Committee is continuing to look at ways of accruing additional revenues through the use of the School facilities during the summer months. In addition, this committee has received reports on policy with respect to long range planning and educational objectives beamed toward AD 2004. Such reports prepared by John Guest and Dr. James Gibson, become valuable background information allowing the Board to reach more realistic decisions in all areas of concern to the School.

The Board through the Scholarships and Bursaries Committee monitors the awarding of the $100,000 available from the Ridley College Foundation and the Ridley College Scholarship Fund, Inc. for eligible students. 65 boys at Ridley are receiving assistance through this programme. Academically the standard of the School is increasing. Last year 9 students won Ontario Scholarships out of the 54 who left from Grade 13.

In the last issue of Tiger we printed the list of donors to the annual fund raising activities at the School. Ben Cronyn will be chairing the Financial Support Committee to keep our enthusiasm channeled to the task at hand. It is most gratifying to note that from the 1973-74 year to the 1974-75 year we saw an increase from 340 contributors to 897. The dollar increase was from $11,000 to $46,000. As pledges to the Program for Excellence are fulfilled, we anticipate a steady and enthusiastic interest in both areas. In the late John Gould's report special mention was made of the Toronto branch of the Women's Guild for their most successful and enjoyable raffle and cocktail party held in May in the Queen City.

A small organization receiving little attention is the Ontario Association of Governing Bodies of Independent Schools. This is a group comprised of Board members and Headmasters from each of the independent schools in Ontario. Ways and means of reducing operating costs are generally the prime topic of discussion. Group purchasing of supplies and fire insurance are areas where we hope to affect economies. Last year, for the first time, we reviewed each others financial statements in the hope that we might find other avenues for saving.

In reporting content so heavily directed toward financial matters at the School, the tendency is to overlook one of our major objectives, that being excellence in education. The first two items on the agenda of every Board meeting are the Headmasters' reports. These are in fact the highlight of every meeting. Through Richard Bradley and John Guest we are quickly taken up by their enthusiasm and dedication. Through their enlightened reports we learn of the innovations they are bringing about, their confidence in the School, the increasing work load of every staff member and the buoyant spirit which is Ridley.

Athletic Championships

A number of readers have enquired how Ridley has fared as far as Little Big Four (now Independent Schools Athletic Association) championships are concerned.

For those of you who may not know, the Little Big Four became the Independent Schools Athletic Association in 1968. At that time Appleby and Lakefield joined the league. Since then, Crescent School (Toronto), Hillfield-Strathallan Colleges (Hamilton), Pickering College (Newmarket) and St. George's College (Toronto) have joined and compete in some sports.

Ridley's record over the past ten years is as follows:

Football	1967	1971	1973
Soccer	1970 (tie)	1971
Hockey	1968	1970	1974
Basketball	1966	1967	1973
Squash	1966	1968	1970
Swimming	1965	1966	1967
Cricket	1965 (tie)	1967	1973
Tennis	1966	1972
Track	1968	1969

First Team Hockey

It has been decided to hang the pictures of the First Hockey Team in a suitable location in the School so all three major sports will be represented.

Our only problem is that we do not have many pictures. If any members of past First teams are willing to donate their team pictures to the School please contact Sam Heaman.

Do not send the pictures. Please write to Sam and tell him what years you have. He will consolidate the results and then get in touch with you.

We feel this is a worthwhile project that should have been done years ago. If you agree, then help us out by advising us you will donate your First team pictures.

Hockey '75

The lengthening days of March are signalling the end of another hockey season at Ridley. In terms of games won, lost (or tied) the season could not be said to be extremely successful nor could it be said to be a failure. When spirit, desire, and all-round sportsmanship is so evident in a group of over 100 participants, then the conclusion must be that the hockey season was most successful.

The League this season was made up of five teams with a total of 55 players. In addition to playing within their own group they were assembled into a Senior and a Junior all-star team which of a total of five games played against outside opposition, won four and lost one. The league was under the able guidance of Dr. Lowell Scott and his able assistants Messrs.

David Wilson, David Mackey and Dennis Glazebrook.

The U/16 Team had a good season under the guidance of Mr. Nick Holmes. Captained by McClelland along with assistants Guinness and Land, they achieved a notable milestone in defeating and tying Upper Canada in their two games with our arch rivals. A number of this team stand an excellent chance of making the First team next year.

The Second Team captained by Ballantyne along with the assistant captain Hunt, had a slow start but came on strong as the season progressed. Their season was marked by some very close games as is evident by their already tying five matches. Attired in new sweaters, they showed excellent spirit and determination which is a reflection of their coach Mr. Simon Bruce-Lockhart.

All of the First Team are shown protecting their net in this action shot.

The First Hockey Team with only five of last years championship team back, made a determined bid to retain the Wright Cup, but lack of experience in several key contests relegated them to third place in the standings, behind Upper Canada and St. Andrews. They enjoyed a very successful trip to Lawrenceville, N.J. to participate in the Lawrenceville Tournament. Ridley placed third in the tournament, defeating Taft, losing to Choate the eventual tournament winner, and defeating Lawrenceville. This tournament gave the team valuable experience and we hope that we will be invited back next year.

Captained by Bunston with assistants Strasser and Massie, the Team showed excellent spirit and determination throughout the season. The addition of Fergus on defence along with some excellent goaltending by Railton and Stein Mi. was of great assistance in many of the very close games in which the team participated.

Among the highlights of the season was the annual competition with Nichols for the "Auld Puck" which was retained by Ridley when Nichols were defeated 6-3 at Ridley.

The players that are graduating this year — Gibson, Cushing, Fergus, Strasser and Szczucinski, contributed a much-needed, steadying influence and the team wishes them well in their future endeavours. The members that will be back will be trying to regain the top position in the league, and with the spirit and pride that characterizes this group, it is not far from their grasp.

Basketball '75

If there are two key factors that influence the success of a basketball team at Ridley they must be height and experience. At the beginning of the season we had little experience and our height was certainly in question. With Dunbar moving in from the top of the key and bringing down some valuable rebounds and Goodman and Hutton out-muscling the opposition under the boards, we were able to adapt to the smallness of our team.

Wortley, Josselyn and Pfohl proved valuable bench strength and could be counted upon to come in and score. A very welcome addition to the First Team line-up was veteran gymnast Mackenzie. Drawn into the basketball limelight he scored with devastating regularity and quickly developed into a solid, reliable and exciting player.

Our season's record points up that indeed this was a building year. We lost to TCS and Upper Canada, split two games with Appleby and only managed a clear cut win over SAC. We were capable of great things but we lacked consistency and this comes from experience. We look to the future, with such players as Preece, Pfohl, Mackenzie and Dunbar. With this group forming the foundation of next year's squad our first coach Mr. Jon Silver, could have a winner.

This year the Second Team was blessed with a hard-working, determined and very experienced coach in Mr. Dave Gagne. Basketball, at this level, can be exciting, but to achieve success, hard work and good coaching are necessary. The players provided the hard work and determination while Mr. Gagne was there with the fundamentals of the game. By the end of the season the team was working as a solid, cohesive unit. With such players as Dinner, Evans, Dufton and Laam, the team enjoyed strong leadership throughout the season.

Under-Sixteen Basketball's most pronounced characteristic was their height; they had plenty of it. With the likes of Christie, Baker, Berkhout and Poulakakis the team was never without rebounders. Mr. Dorland was added to the coaching roster this year and he has done a tremendous job with the young group he had. The guards this year, Marquez and Pereksta were noted for their lack of height and their exceptional ball control and passing ability. They were the playmakers and were very exciting to watch.

Soccer '74

The pre-season training period this year showed great promise for the First team. A practice game against the local Heidelberg side pulled the team together and they were undefeated in their first four games. This was unfortunately not to continue, and again Ridley was defeated by S.A.C. in Aurora. The rest of the season was mixed and just before the tournament at St. Andrews, the team had a six and four record. The first game in the tournament was also a league game and Ridley lost to Crescent which finished all hopes for the league and again set them on the path for the consolation trophy at the tournament.

Land and Preece charge toward the ball in Under 16 Soccer action.

Under Sixteen and Seconds were more successful; both had undefeated seasons. The Seconds had a record of 6 wins and 2 draws while the Under Sixteens had four wins and four draws. This again indicates that the First team of 1975 will gain some strong recruits.

The Trans-Siberian Railway

(Parts of a letter written by David R. Morgan (65) to Terence Cronyn).

... It is a very long ride — 7 straight days covering 9000 km. I think that the best way to cover this vast distance is to break the journey as much as possible. There are at least 3 cities along the route worth visiting (Khabarovsk, Irkutsk, Novosibirsk) and perhaps even more. At every city you decide to stop at, there's an Intourist representative who will get your baggage and yourself to and from your hotel.

In a trip of 9000 km. there must be a lot of scenery. However, there's not really that great a variety of countryside and there is nothing particularly breath-taking. The Trans-Canada Railway gives a more scenic journey and in a shorter distance as well.

Nevertheless, there's still a lot of beautiful land to see. Along the entire length of the ride, there is an endless stretch of forests, mainly coniferous. There are many rivers, all clean and sparkling. Occasionally there are lakes with the most famous being Lake Baikal, a vast waterway of unique fish and fauna.

Most of the land along the path of the railway is flat, yet there is surprisingly little agriculture. In European Russia there are a few large farms, but east of the Urals there's little other than a few small plots for the villages along the way. These villages are the centres for the maintenance staff of the railway and resemble frontier towns — wooden buildings and mostly log cabins. They show little signs of activity, and offer the most primitive means of cultivation — horse and plough for example. Nevertheless, each village has electricity, so the inhabitants aren't too badly off.

At every stop, all the people would rush out onto the platform and head for the stalls selling ice-cream, fruit, bread and meat. Then, as the train would begin to pull out, there would be a mad rush to get back on board before it gathered too much speed! I must admit the first time I saw the train start off without me, I found I had speed never before exhibited!

On the train there was a large number of soldiers who raised my faith in the Soviet Army — they were human! The first day on the train they offered us Port and Wine, and for the whole journey were in a state of happiness.

The ride itself is relatively smooth; at various times the train is pulled by an electric engine, a diesel engine and even a steam engine. There is certain swaying, but nothing unbearable.

For foreigners, there are two classes of travel — first and second (soft and hard). The basic difference between the two is that first class cabins contain 2 berths and second 4 berths. The first class berths are marginally more comfortable but nothing special.

Meals can be a bit of a problem. All the trains (and stations) run on Moscow time which means you're never really sure what time it is. (There's a 7 hour difference between Moscow and Nakhodka.) The only thing to do is to wander along to the dining car when you feel hungry and hope that it's open! Once you're in the car the fun begins. The service is slow (you've got lots of time, so that's not a negative characteristic!), the menu is limited and starchy and the food is not always hot, or even warm.

Perhaps the worst aspect of the entire journey is the lack of washing facilities. For each carriage there are two tiny hand basins with no plugs and no hot water. Consequently, it is very difficult to wash and by the end of the trip the train has a distinct odour . . .

The trans-Siberian railway trip is advertised as one of the last great adventures and more or less lives up to its name. I wouldn't want to travel the whole length again, but I should like to travel part of it in winter. For a first time, I would recommend travelling in June or September — when it's not too cold and not too crowded with tourists.

IN LIEU OF FLOWERS

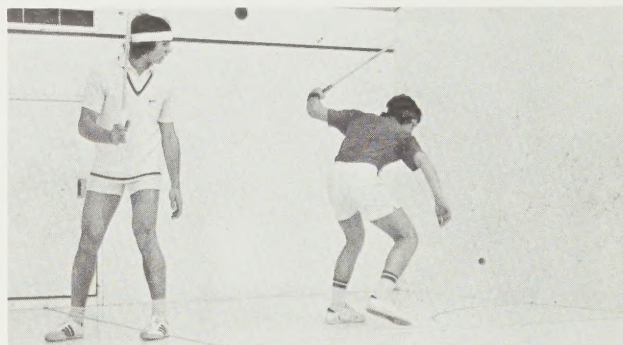

Recently Parents and Old Boys have had bereavements in their families. Even at this time they have thought of Ridley and have asked their friends through the medium of an obituary in newspapers to make a contribution to The Ridley College Foundation in lieu of a floral tribute to the deceased.

Squash '75

As the years pass we find that in any sport the level of talent comes and goes in cycles. Squash is certainly no exception to this unwritten law. Although squash enrolled the largest number of people ever in its program this year, it can only be classed as a rebuilding year.

Our win, loss records were not very impressive. First team won four and lost seven matches while the Second team won three and lost three. In addition an U/16 group made up of a combination of Upper and Lower Schools boys competed as a team at Upper Canada. Several players played in the T.C.S.C.C. Invitational and fared quite well.

deLangley watches while Ferguson returns his shot.

The highlight of the season was a tour of Philadelphia, Penn. which included matches against Hill School, Haverford College, Episcopal School and the University of Pennsylvania JV team.

I feel that the experience gained will be of tremendous value in the future for each player. It was an opportunity for each player to witness better squash as well as learn to adjust to varying conditions.

Once again Ridley hosted the Ontario Junior Squash Championship. Throughout, the calibre of squash was superb. The tournament was won by Don Baker of T.C.S.C.C. The Runner-up was John Lennard of Montreal. The consolation ladder was won by Bob Ferguson of Ridley.

The season ended for the Squash team with the annual I.S.A.A. meet held this year at Upper Canada. The team from Upper Canada proved too strong for any of the other five schools competing. Ridley was represented by Ferguson (captain), de Langley, Paterson, Walker and Willmot. They nipped ahead of Crescent School to sneak into fourth place.

For the two remaining weeks of the term there is a school competition for the Bulldog Trophy. This year's draw included seventy-two students, many of whom do not play squash as a sport. This proves the growing interest in the game. The winner of the Bulldog Trophy will be announced in the next issue of Tigr.

The squash season would not have been successful without the tremendous efforts of our coach Mr. Jack Aylott and our assistant coach Mr. John Inglis. It was through the efforts of Mr. Aylott that the Philadelphia tour and the Ontario Junior Championships came about. Good luck to you next year.

G. M. MacLachlan Donates Stroke Unit

Graham M. MacLachlan (33) of Toronto, Ont. has successfully completed his personal campaign to raise $250,000 to provide the Graham MacLachlan Stroke Unit at Sunnybrook Hospital. This is the first specialized centre in Canada for the treatment of stroke patients and is said to be one of the most modern in the world. It will also provide a focus for research into the cause and prevention of strokes.

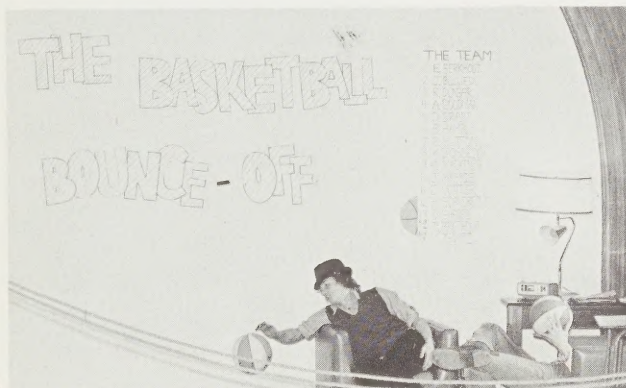

Around The School

The program of visits to Ridley by McMaster professors continued this term with the lecture of history professor Gaegan to the Year 3 class. His topic was Athenian Democracy.

Many members of the student body are involved in rehearsals for the April performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's H.M.S. Pinafore.

Although the winter was very mild, a joint Merritt-Gooderham ski trip to Caledon was highly successful. In addition, the Ridley ski team captured the Independent School Association trophy at the annual ski meet, this year held at Georgian Peaks.

A number of energetic Year 4 students raised a substantial $720 for the Cancer Fund in a marathon 101 hours of basketball bouncing.

Sharpe, during his stint of basketball bouncing. 15 boys bounced their basketball continuously for 101 hours and raised $720 for the Cancer Fund.

Attendance at the two annual Parent's Days was very good despite the inclement weather. The January 18th and 25th meetings provided a useful opportunity for parents to discuss the progress of their offspring with the Faculty.

Several theatrical productions have been staged at the School in recent months. The Charlottetown company Feux Follets performed in November, followed in February by the Young Peoples Theatre production of Silent Edward. In the last Prologue of the term, Charles Hayter gave a dramatized reading from the works of Robert Service.

Several students spent the week before mid-term as guests of the Petit Seminaire de Quebec. A tour of the city and several days of skiing were two of the many activities of the week in Quebec. It is hoped that the French students will pay a return visit to Ridley and the Niagara area.

Swimming '75

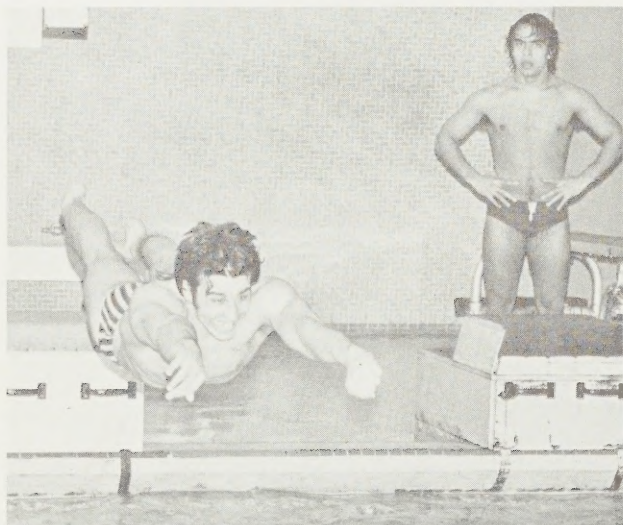

Both the First and Second teams trained faithfully throughout the season, the Firsts under Mr. Al Staples and the seconds with Mr. Bob Eadie. The Firsts won five of their seven meets, the Seconds three of seven. Ridley Firsts defeated SAC and TCS in dual meets and in the home and home meets with Appleby and UCC the Firsts won one and lost one. One of the meets with Appleby and UCC and in the one with TCS the competition was very close, with the result depending on the final free style relay. The Seconds defeated UCC by one point in one meet and lost to them in the return meet; the Seconds were victorious in their meets with SAC and with Hillfield.

The final meet for the First team was the ISAA meet at Jarvis Collegiate in Toronto on March 8th. The competition was the closest in years, with UCC winning for the fifth consecutive year, with a total of 55.67 points; Ridley was second with 41, TCS third with 40.33 and Appleby fourth with 35. Fagan was outstanding for UCC, winning three events. MacLachlan swam well for Ridley, placing second in the 200 yds. free style, third in the 100 yrd. free style and fourth in the 50 yds. butterfly; Rumble scored a third in the 50 yds. free style and a fifth in the 100 yds. free style; Lares Ma. swam well to place second in the 50 yds. breast stroke, with Luciani coming fourth; Porter placed fourth in the individual medley and in the 50 yds. back stroke; the Ridley free style relay team (Rumble, Britchford, Pos Mi. and Porter) won the event in 1.41, just seven-tenths off the ISAA record.

MacLachlan was an able captain for the First team. Porter won the UCC Cup as the best all-round swimmer at Ridley, with MacLachlan a close second. Pos Mi. filled in well as our second diver along with Dillon Ma. who won the diving in five of our meets and placed third at the ISAA meet.

Powell and Davies II were Second team captains; others who swam well for the seconds were Brule Mi., Unsworth, Bean, Stewart Mi., Willis, Arnold Mi., Helliwell and Asbil. Ridley can look forward to having good material for its teams next year.
